Death of George Rooks

Death came very suddenly on Thursday to a well-known and highly esteemed resident of Clarksville (a suburb of Napanee) in the person of Mr. George Rooks, at the age of sixty-seven years. The deceased who had suffered from heart trouble for some time, was taken ill in the morning and passed away a few hours later. A son of Mr. and Mrs. Abel Rook, the deceased was a native of the Township of Richmond where he spent his early years. When a young man, having a desire to go west, he left home and remained in the west until 1906, when he returned to Richmond. The following year he was united in marriage to Miss Alaberta Loucks, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Loucks, North Fredericksburg. After a few years spent at his former home district, on the Slash Road, Mr. and Mrs. Rooks moved to Clarksville which had been their home ever since. Jan 20. 1934

During the past few years the health of Mrs. Rooks has not been of the very best, as she has been an invalid for some time. He was a man who was held in high esteem by his many friends.

Besides his wife he leaves to mourn his loss, two brothers, Henry Rooks, Slash Road, and Robert Rooks, Pearson, Man.; also three sisters, Mrs. Thomas Loucks and Mrs. Andrew Thompson of Melita, Man., and Mrs. Morley Scott, of Frankford. He was a member of Grace United Church and the funeral was held this afternoon at the family residence with interment at Riverview Cemetery.

by fire today, causing an estimated loss of $50,000. The building was a two-storey affair and twenty-five were employed there.

The fire is believed to have started in the dry kiln in the basement and before the alarm was given the flames had shot through the floor to the floor above. The firemen worked in weather at eleven degrees below zero and could do little but prevent spreading of the flames.

The plant was owned by L. A. Turner and W. Harvey of this city and the National Card and Board Company of Chicago. It was erected in 1930. The loss is fully covered by insurance.

Mr. Jacob Loucks Writes Poetry at Friend's Request

Jan. 18, 1929

Having seen in a recent issue of The Beaver a life sketch of Mr. Jacob Loucks of Napanee, Mr. James MacGillvray, a former resident of Napanee, familiarly known as "Mac" who now lives in Scotland, wrote Mr. Loucks to ask for a sample of his poetry.

Complying with "Mac's" wish Mr. Loucks wrote the following poem specially for him:—

"Our Canadian Home"

"Our Canadian home a heritage;
A fitting Paradise of earth.
Carved from the primeval forest,
Proud, Canada gave us birth.
From where the broad Atlantic
Pounds the coast of Labrador,
Where the codfish and salmon
Replenish the natives' store,
There its briny boisterous waters
For past centuries untold
Have guarded well that graveyard
Where sleep the mariners o'erbold.

To the Pacific, with its placid waters
Washing the shining sand,
Wafting perfume of the tropics
Across seas from a distant land,
The Prairie with its golden harvest
That waves in a zephyrous breeze,
As the reapers and the stookers
Garner the golden sheaves,
Millions of wheat for the Motherland
That, we would have all nations
know,
A land where once in myriads
Roamed the Bison and Buffalo.

The giant ribbed old Rockies
A chain of silver and endless gold,
With minerals to supply the Empire,
For Britannia the keys we hold.
Our forests are yet in the virgin
While the fire demon adds its grief
We have the Ash, the Oak and the Elm

And that tree with the Maple Leaf,
Through blizzard and ice to the northward,

Possessions reach to that distant goal
And we will bow to no dictators.
All, is Canada, this side the Pole."

— J. G. Loucks.

Re : Richard Loucks, U.E. of Osnabruck Township, Stormont County, Ontario, 1784, and his son William Loucks, U.E. of Osnabruck Township Stormont County, Ontario, 1784, BUT WHO LATER MOVED to Williamsburg Township, Dundas County, Ontario, to reside.

Dear Mr. Benson:

Further to information dated 4 December, 1969, setting forth irrefutable records of my German Palatine United Empire Loyalist ancestors, of French Huguenot ancestry, whose original name was du Laux.

I departed the following day for Vancouver, and time did not permit the addition of family genealogical and historical information I wished you to receive. To the erroneous genealogical records I pointed out to you, which are recorded in your United Empire Loyalist Association of Canada files, additional information shall be added.

The reason for my letter to you is as follows:

- 1) To set the records straight in the files and archives of the United Empire Loyalist Association of Canada, and its branches, for research purposes, and public information, here in Canada and other countries, of my great-great-great grandfather Richard Loucks, U. E. who came from Stone Arabia, New York State, U. S. A., and settled permanently with his wife Dorothy (Fox) Loucks, in Osnabruck Township, Stormont County, Eastern District, Ontario, in 1784.
- 2) To draw your attention to a most misleading clerical error made in the U. E. List (52A), that is the erroneous recording of the place of residence of my Loyalist ancestor Richard Loucks, U.E. of Osnabruck Township, Stormont County, Ontario, 1784. His place of residence is recorded as "Williamsburg". Correct listing should read:

Richard Loucks - Residence - Osnabruck.

If you will examine the U. E. Rolls (52B) you will see his place of residence as "Township No. 3" which is Osnabruck Township, and his name "U.E. Loucks, Richard"

- 3) To set the records straight in the files and archives of the United Empire Loyalist Association of Canada of my great-great grandfather William Loucks, U. E. son of my great-great-great grandfather Richard Loucks, U. E. of Osnabruck Township, Stormont County, 1784, and his wife Dorothy (Fox) Loucks, who came from Stone Arabia, New York State, U.S.A. in 1784, with his father, mother, sisters and brothers, to Osnabruck Township, Stormont County, Eastern District, Ontario, BUT WHO LATER MOVED TO Williamsburg Township, Dundas County, Ontario, to reside.

- 4) To draw your attention to the erroneous and unwarranted use, and recording of, the name of my great-great-great grandfather Richard Loucks, U. E. of Osnabruck Township, Stormont County, Eastern District, Ontario, 1784, in the files and archives of the United Empire Loyalist Association of Canada, and the Hamilton Branch of the United Empire Loyalist Association, etc., which record the name of William Louks of Charlotteville Township, Norfolk County, Ontario, who purchased land and settled on the E₂ of Lot No. 6, Concession 11, and the East Part of Lot No. 6, Concession 12 of Charlotteville Township, Norfolk County, Ontario, his wife, Huldah (Huffman) Louks, and their descendants, among whom are Ellen Louks (Cook) Fairclough, daughter of Nellie Bell (Louks) Cook, and her husband Norman E. Cook, late of Hamilton, Ontario, and Mrs. Fairclough's son Gordon H. Fairclough.

My great-great-great grandfather Richard Loucks, U. Note: Richard Loucks, U. E. did not build his Inn on lot 31, W¹/₂, Second Concession Township of Osnaburck, as recorded in a research.

Note: Richard Loucks, U. E. did not build Loucks House, my family residence, now at Upper Canada Village.

Richard Loucks, U. E. of Osnaburck Township, Stormont County had been deceased nearly four decades, when Loucks house was built by my great grandfather, John W. Loucks House was built in Williamsburg Township, Dundas County, My father, Arthur Moseley Loucks, was a grandson of John W. AFTER NEARLY TEN (10) YEARS OF LIVING IN OSNABRUCK TOWNSHIP, STORMONT COUNTY, WILLIAM LOUCKS, U.E. MOVED TO WILLIAMSBURG TOWNSHIP, DUNDAS COUNTY, EASTERN DISTRICT, ONTARIO, TO RESIDE.

1. 1787 . Certificate, dated 13 November, 1787 issued to William Loucks (his name erroneously written "Louks" on certificate) giving him authority to settle on the East half of lot No. 36, second concession, TOWNSHIP OF OSNABRUCK, County of Stormont, Eastern District, Ontario.

2. 1796. Description dated 5 August, 1796. William Loucks - East half of Lot No. 36, second concession, Township of Osnabruck, County of Stormont, Eastern District. "With Mr. Collin's Certificate!"

Note: 1. The certificate was dated 1787 at "Osnaburgh".

2. The Description has the name correctly spelled "William Loucks" but the Description written by "D. W. Smith. A.S.G." was done at Niagara, "with Mr. Collin's certificate" which was dated at "Osnaburgh", and copied on the Description.

William Loucks, U. E. in the year 1796 had already moved from Osnabruck Township, Stormont County, Eastern District, Ontario, to Williamsburg Township, Dundas County, Eastern District, Ontario.

The Docket Books could be most confusing if a person making a search did not know that in 1796, Elizabeth Loucks, was now Mrs. Thomas Casselman, and her brother, William Loucks, U. E. now lived in Williamsburg Township, Dundas County. Elizabeth (Loucks) Casselman received a lot beside her brother, William Loucks, U.E. both lots in Osnabruck Township.

Elizabeth Loucks, U. E. was the daughter of Richard Loucks, U. E. and his wife Dorothy (Fox) Loucks, of Osnabruck Township, Stormont County, Eastern District, 1784. and sister of "Mr. Wm. Loucks, U.E." In 1796 "Miss E. Loucks" was actually Elizabeth (Loucks) Casselman wife of Thomas Casselman.

The Description is to Miss Elizabeth "Louks" from the certificate, but, her other Description of different land is to "Miss Elizabeth Loucks, U. E. The Crown Patent, 1st September, 1797 is granted to - "Miss Elizabeth Loucks".

- 4) 1792 - Petition of William Loucks, U. E. dated 27 March, 1792, while living in Osnabruck Township, Stormont County.

In 1792, William Loucks, U. E. petitioned for additional land. Persons coming to Upper Canada were now receiving 200 acres. William Loucks had only received one hundred (100) acres in Osnabruck Township, Stormont County, and wished to be on equal footing with the new settlers. His Petition was allowed the 27 March, 1792, and he received his extra land in Williamsburg Township, Dundas County, Eastern District, Ontario.

- 5) 1793 - Deed dated the 19 March, 1793 from Philip Empey, Senr. to William Loucks, who was then living in Osnabruck Township, Stormont County.

Quote: " Know all men by these presents, that I Philip Empey, Senr. of the County of Stormont, Yoeman.....sold,assigned, and transferred to William Loucks, of the said County, yoeman....."

- 6) 1796 First Crown Patent - Grant to "Mr. William Loucks"...land situate in the Township of Osnaburgh" 100 acres, being the East half of lot No. 36 second concession, Township of Osnabruck, County of Stormont, Eastern District. 24 August, 1796.

1803 Second Crown Patent - Grant to "William Loucks"....land in Williamsburg Township, Dundas County, Eastern District - West half of lot 22, first and second concessions Township of Williamsburg, County of Dundas, Eastern District.

Another Crown Patent for lot No. 27 in the 6th concession was issued 28 October, 1803.

There are Crown Land Records of a Crown Patent in Matilda Township, Dundas County. A letter from the Office of the Secretary points out a mistake was made. The Deed shows that this property went to some other person. William Loucks, U. E. did not receive this land. This is another confusing record.

Re: No. 4. Map of Williamsburg Township which was surveyed in 1784 - 1785 - 1786 - 1787.

- 7) Map of Osnabruck Township, 1789.
I have stated already on page 4, of this letter, that the Certificate of Occupation for land described as - " E half...a Lot (No. 36) consisting of One hundred Acres in 2^d Concess. in full of said Proportion, in the Seigneurie of Osnaburgh" had the name of my great-great grandfather William Loucks, U. E. written erroneously, William "Louks". This map may be seen in The Loyalist Room at Upper Canada Village, in a display table with glass cover. William Loucks, U. E. was residing in Osnabruck Twp. in 1789.
- 8) Map No. 4 Williamsburg Township also in United Empire Loyalist Room at Upper Canada Village but in a large book placed on a table. William Loucks, U. E. was also residing in Osnabruck Township, in 1792, when Surveyor William Chewitt, crossed out the name on the lot of Richard Mandaville, and wrote the name "Wm. Loucks, on the West half of lot 22, first and second concessions, Township of Williamsburg, Dundas County, the 15 October, 1792. The name Loucks is correctly spelled on the Williamsburg Map.

Documents show that William Loucks, U. E. had moved and was living in Williamsburg Township, Dundas County, Eastern District, Ontario in 1794. This illustrates how erroneous the statement made in the "Loucks Family and the Loyalist Farm" is, and which has mislead many persons.

George W. Loucks of Williamsburg Township, Dundas County, was the son of William Loucks, Sr. and his wife Elizabeth (Keiser) Loucks. Note: The name Keiser is written in various ways on old documents.

William Loucks, Junior was born 6 February, 1794. After the year 1794 William Loucks, U. E. (Senior) signed, when his son grew up, his name William Loucks, Sen., so there would be no confusion between the father and son. This was usually done, but there are exceptions where he did leave the word "Senior" off his signature.

The error is "William Loucks", "Fredericksburg"

Correction - The Cover should read -

John W. Loucks,

Son of the late William Loucks - WILLIAMSBURG.

This is purely a government clerical error.

This error of "Fredericksburg" is written on the cover of the Petition.

The Petition itself does not contain this error, and clearly stated as follows:

Quote from actual Petition:

" son of the Late William Loucks of the Township of WILLIAMSBURG"
This error is worth watching. It might mislead a person researching.

My great grandfather John W. Loucks, of Williamsburg Township, Dundas County, married Alta Moseley daughter of Doctor John Moseley, Physician of Cornwall, Stormont County, Ontario, and later Williamsburg Township, Dundas County, and his wife Abigail(DeCastle) Moseley.

The headstone of Doctor John Moseley, and his wife Abigail (DeCastle) Moseley, is in the Memorial Cemetery, Trinity Anglican Church Section, Crysler Battlefield Park.

The headstone of John W. Loucks, of Williamsburg Township, and his wife Alta (Moseley) Loucks, is also in the Memorial Cemetery, Trinity Anglican Church Section, Crysler Battlefield Park. He was church Warden at Trinity Anglican Church, Riverside Heights, for thirty- three years, during the stay of five rectors of the church.

PERSONAL CENSUS - Williamsburg Township, Dundas County, Ontario.

Elizabeth (Keiser) Loucks was living with her son George W. Loucks, his wife and children in Williamsburg Township, Dundas County in 1851. She is recorded correctly as a widow, but her name is erroneously spelled "Louks" as is that of her son George W. Loucks, his wife and family. This was a very common error. William Loucks, Junior, and his wife Margaret (Crysler) Loucks, and their family had their share of the misspelling "Louks". They spelled their name Loucks.

After the death of William Loucks, U. E. his son soon left off the word "Junior" in his signature, and in most cases signed himself William W. Loucks.

The 1879 Atlas of Dundas County.

Under the heading of settlement of persons mentioned, is reference to William Loucks (actually William Loucks, Junior) which says he settled the County in 1794.

This is erroneous. William Loucks, Junior, was born 6th of February, 1794.

Some of the years of birth of others are mixed up and this leaves a wrong impression.

Re: Loucks House, Upper Canada Village - Property on which it was built.

Deed - 19 July, 1802. - John Shell to William Loucks E $\frac{1}{2}$.

Deed - 15 Sept. 1823. - William Loucks, Sr. to (his son) William Loucks, Jr. E $\frac{1}{2}$.

Deed - 6 Oct. 1823. - William Loucks, Jr. to (his brother) John W. Loucks. E $\frac{1}{2}$.

Deed - 26 July. 1886. - John W. Loucks to (his son) Guy Northrup Loucks. E $\frac{1}{2}$.

WILL - of Guy Northrup Loucks, 26 November, 1897, registered following his death in 1900, devising the property to (his brother) Allan Loucks, for life, and after death of Allan Loucks, to Arthur Moseley Loucks, (son of Allan Loucks).

Note: Guy Northrup Loucks, son of John W. Loucks, and his wife Alta (Moseley) Loucks, never married, and lived, and was born on the East Half of lot 22, first concession, Township of Williamsburg, County of Dundas. He lived on this property for 78 years, and in Loucks House, now at Upper Canada Village, for 54 years.

My father Arthur Moseley Loucks (1875-1961) was born in Loucks House, and owned it. He died in Kemptville, Ontario, Grenville County, in 1961. He married Adelyene Blanche McBrien, the first day of January, 1900.

1. Dorothy Gwendolyn Loucks Boucher - (wife of G. Russell Boucher, Q. C. Barrister, Daughter of Arthur Moseley Loucks, (Ottawa, I, Ontario, Canada.)
and his wife, Adylene Blanche (McBrien) Loucks.

2. Gerald Douglas Loucks, Q. C. Barrister, Kemptonville, Ontario, Canada.
Son of Arthur Moseley Loucks and his wife Adelyene Blanche McBrien.

You will recognize from the Abstract above, some of the major mistakes made in the recording of the history of Loucks House, my family residence, now at Upper Canada Village. Also how irresponsible it was to associate my great-great-grandfather, Richard Loucks, U. E. of Osnabruck Township, Stormont County, 1784, with Loucks House, when he had been deceased nearly four decades when the stone house was built. Richard Loucks U. E. never at any time had anything to do with the farm lot or the buildings on the lot in Williamsburg Township.

Re: The name "Dieterich" in some old records of Osnabruck Township, Stormont County.
& Williamsburg Township.

Many German Palatines took English christian names when they went to, and later on settled in North America. Their children also used English names. My family were among the many who acquired new christian names.

You will observe that Richard Loucks, U. E. of Osnabruck Township recorded as "Dieterich" and his wife Dorothy recorded as "Dorothea". His name Loucks is recorded in a variety of ways, according to who recorded it, and how each recorder interpreted it. A little later on, in the church records you will see the name written correctly.

Church Records cobtinued.

William Loucks, U. E. son of Richard Loucks, U. E. of Osnabruck Township, named his eldest son William.

William Loucks, Junior was born 6 February, 1794. (Our private family bible gives the hour of birth, and time of day, morning, afternoon or evening). The church record is as follows:

1794.

Parents - "William Lauks (some persons might interpret the name "Louks" on this record) ux. eg. Elizabeth!" Born 6 Feb. nat. 1794.

Child - "Wilhelm"

Sponcers - "Nicolaus Alt. - The sponcers are actually Nicholas Ault, U.E. of Osnabruck Township, and his wife Catherine (Loucks) Ault, daughter of Richard Loucks, U. E. of Osnabruck Township, and his wife Dorothy (Fox) Loucks.
ux. eg. Catharina"

1791. Parents - "Nicolaus Alt" and "Catherina"

Child - "Petrus" Born 1 April, 1791

Sponcers - "Dieterich Louk" & ux. eg. Dorothea" - The parents are Nicholas Ault, U. E. of Osnabruck Township, and his wife Catherine (Loucks) Ault, daughter of Richard Loucks, U. E. of Osnabruck Township, and his wife Dorothy (Fox) Loucks.

The Sponcers are Richard Loucks U. E. and his wife Dorothy (Fox) Loucks of Osnabruck Township.

1803. Parents - "Dietrich Loucks"
"Catarina, ux."

Child " John Dieterich" Born 22 September, 1803.

Sponcers " Dieterich Loucks, Sen."
Dorothea. ux."

The parents are actually Richard Loucks, Junior and his wife Catherins Settle, whose headstone is in the Woodlands East Section of the Memorial Cemetry, Crysler Battlefield park.

The child is Richard Loucks, son of Richard Loucks, Junior and his wife Catherine Settle. of Osnabruck Township.

The sponcers are Richard Loucks, U. E. and his wife Dorothy (Fox) Loucks, father and mother of Richard Loucks, Junior , and grandparents of the Child Richard Loucks, who was born 22 Sept. 1803.

Here you see three generations of Richard Loucks' all recorded in a church records together.

None of these three Richards ever lived in Williamsburg Township, All spent their lives in Osnabruck Township, Stormont County, Eastern District.

Do nott confuse my family with the little boy Richard, who came to Williamsburg Township, with his father. This is another family of Loucks Loyalists. The "little boy Richard Loucks" died in 1804, and is recorded in Church records.

All three Richards of my family as written above, were well and all living in Osnabruck Township in 1804.

1803. On the 20th of November, 1803, Colonel John Crysler of Crysler's Farm married Nancy Loucks, of Osnabruck Township, Stormont County, daughter of Richard Loucks, U. E. and his wife Dorothy (Fox) Loucks of Osnabruck Township, 1784. Richard Loucks, U.E. is recorded as "Dieterich Loucks of Osnabruck".

Some confusing records.

Descendants of William P. Loucks of Leeds and Lanark Counties, were confused for sometime, especially at the time of the building of Upper Canada Village. Neither William P. Loucks or his son William Alfred Loucks, are from the Richard Loucks, U. E. Osnabruck line. William Alfred Loucks and his wife Caroline (Markley) Loucks are listed in the 1851 census of Williamsburg Township. William Loucks Junior and his wife Margaret (Crysler) Loucks are also in the 1851 Williamsburg Township census, but are recorded as "Louks". They are also recorded "Louks" in the 1861 census of Williamsburg Township.

A misleading error appears in a sketch of my great grandfather John W. Loucks, in a book entitled the Canadian Biographical Dictionary and Portrait Gallery, Ontario Volume, published in 1880. Under the heading "John W. Loucks, Morrisburg" is the following:

Quote: "John W. Loucks, clerk of the Division Court, is a son of William Loucks, a United Empire Loyalist, from the State of New York, settling in the county of Stormont, Ontario, soon after the American Revolution, and afterwards purchasing land in the township of Williamsburg, county of Dundas." This quotation is correct, but the statement that William Loucks, U. E. "died at a great age in 1863" is completely erroneous.

John W. Loucks' son Lucius De Castle Loucks, died in 1863. This could have been a misunderstanding during a conversation.

Re: statements contained in the story The Loucks Family and the Loyalist Farm which are erroneous.

1. My great-great grandfather William Loucks, U. E. did not leave the farm of his father Richard Loucks, U. E. of Osnabruck Township "in 1803". The fact is, William Loucks, U. E. left Osnabruck Township, and moved to Williamsburg Township in 1794.
2. My great grandfather John W. Loucks did not buy the farm on which Loucks House was built from his father.

John W. Loucks purchased the farm from his brother, William Loucks, Junior, in 1823. See Abstract in other part of letter. William Loucks, Junior lived in Williamsburg, Osnabruck, and Matilda Townships during his life.

3. In this same story there is reference to "Louks" (no christian name) a Dutchman, and "Louch" (no christian name) dated 1817. My ancestors were not Dutch. They were German Palatine and originally French Huguenots bearing the name du Laux. They came by way of Holland to America.
Richard Loucks, U. E. of Osnabruck Township, Stormont County had been deceased for some years in 1817, and his Will was registered in 1816. Our family name was never "Louks" or "Louch"

4. William Louks of Charlotteville Township, Norfolk County, near Lyndoch, Ontario, was first referred to as "William Louks, Norfolk County, ^{about} 1790". When Dr. Reamans book was published in 1963, this was changed to "about 1788 William Louks came", etc. The material on William Louks was sent from Ottawa, and Dr. Reaman accepted it for his book. I must point out that the information was compiled on William Louks, of Charlotteville Township, Norfolk County, during the period when the printed matter was placing Richard Loucks, U. E. of Osnabruck Township, erroneously in Williamsburg Township. This left my great-great-great grandfather and his son William Loucks, U. E. sitting in their rightful place of settlement for anyone to use. Their rightful place of settlement being Osnabruck Township, Stormont County, in 1784.

If you will examine the 1789 Map of Osnabruck Township, Stormont County, you will see the name of my great-great grandfather William Loucks, U.E. (his name mis-spelled "Louks" on Map) on the E $\frac{1}{2}$ of lot 36 second concession, Township of Osnabruck, County of Stormont. This 1789 map of Osnabruck Township is "about 1790", but this lot in Osnabruck Township has no connection with William Louks of Charlotteville Township, Norfolk County, near Lyndoch, Ontario, or his wife Huldah (Huffman) Louks. My great-great grandfather's wife was Elizabeth (Keiser) Loucks.

You will also note, that the Certificate of Occupation of my great-great grandfather William Loucks, U. E. (mis-spelled "Louks" on his Osnabruck Township Certificate) for the above mentioned Osnabruck Township lot, was issued the 13th of November, 1787, "about 1788". This was the first land given him as a loyalist.

This Certificate of Occupation dated 13th of November, 1787, for the E $\frac{1}{2}$ of Lot 36, second concession Township of Osnabruck, County of Stormont, has nothing whatsoever to do with William Louks of Charlotteville Township, Norfolk County, who died 11 April, 1857, and settled near Lyndoch, Ontario, and his wife Huldah (Huffman) Louks

No descendant of an authentic United Empire Loyalist, as I am, would stand by and see one hundred and eighty-six years of family history distorted. I can well understand persons who have only received misinformation, being mislead until they received the true facts.

The authentic and factual records I have recorded in this letter to you, are more than ample proof that erroneous information contained in the files and archives of the United Empire Loyalist Association of Canada should be removed.

I am enclosing a photostat for your information.

Yours sincerely,

K. A. Benson, Esq.,
Genealogist, Dominion Council,
The United Empire Loyalist Association,
21 Hickson St.,
Toronto, 3. Ontario.

Dear Mr. Benson:

Due to grossly inaccurate and misleading genealogical records supplied to The Dominion Council, and the United Empire Loyalist Association, Hamilton Branch, I find it necessary to forward you authentic and factual information, to clarify and correct glaring evidence of distorted and inefficient research, that is, the inclusion of the name of my great great great grandfather, Richard Loucks, U.E. of Osnabruck Township, County of Stormont, Eastern District, 1784, in the genealogical records that record the name of William Louks of Charlottsville Township, County of Norfolk, and his wife Huldah (Huffman) Louks, and those of his descendants, Ellen (Cook) Fairclough and her son Gordon Fairclough, Etc. Etc. To suggest a relationship, when there is none, is surprise enough, but to have his former New York State residence and place of birth changed to another State, is gross misrepresentation. His family were Huguenot and later German Palantines. NOT Dutch.

I set forth a few of the many public documents that include the name of my great great great grandfather, Richard Loucks, U. E. who with his wife Dorothy (Fox) Loucks, and family, came from Stone Arabia, New York State, and settled permanently in Osnabruck Township, County, Eastern District, in 1784. and remained until his death.

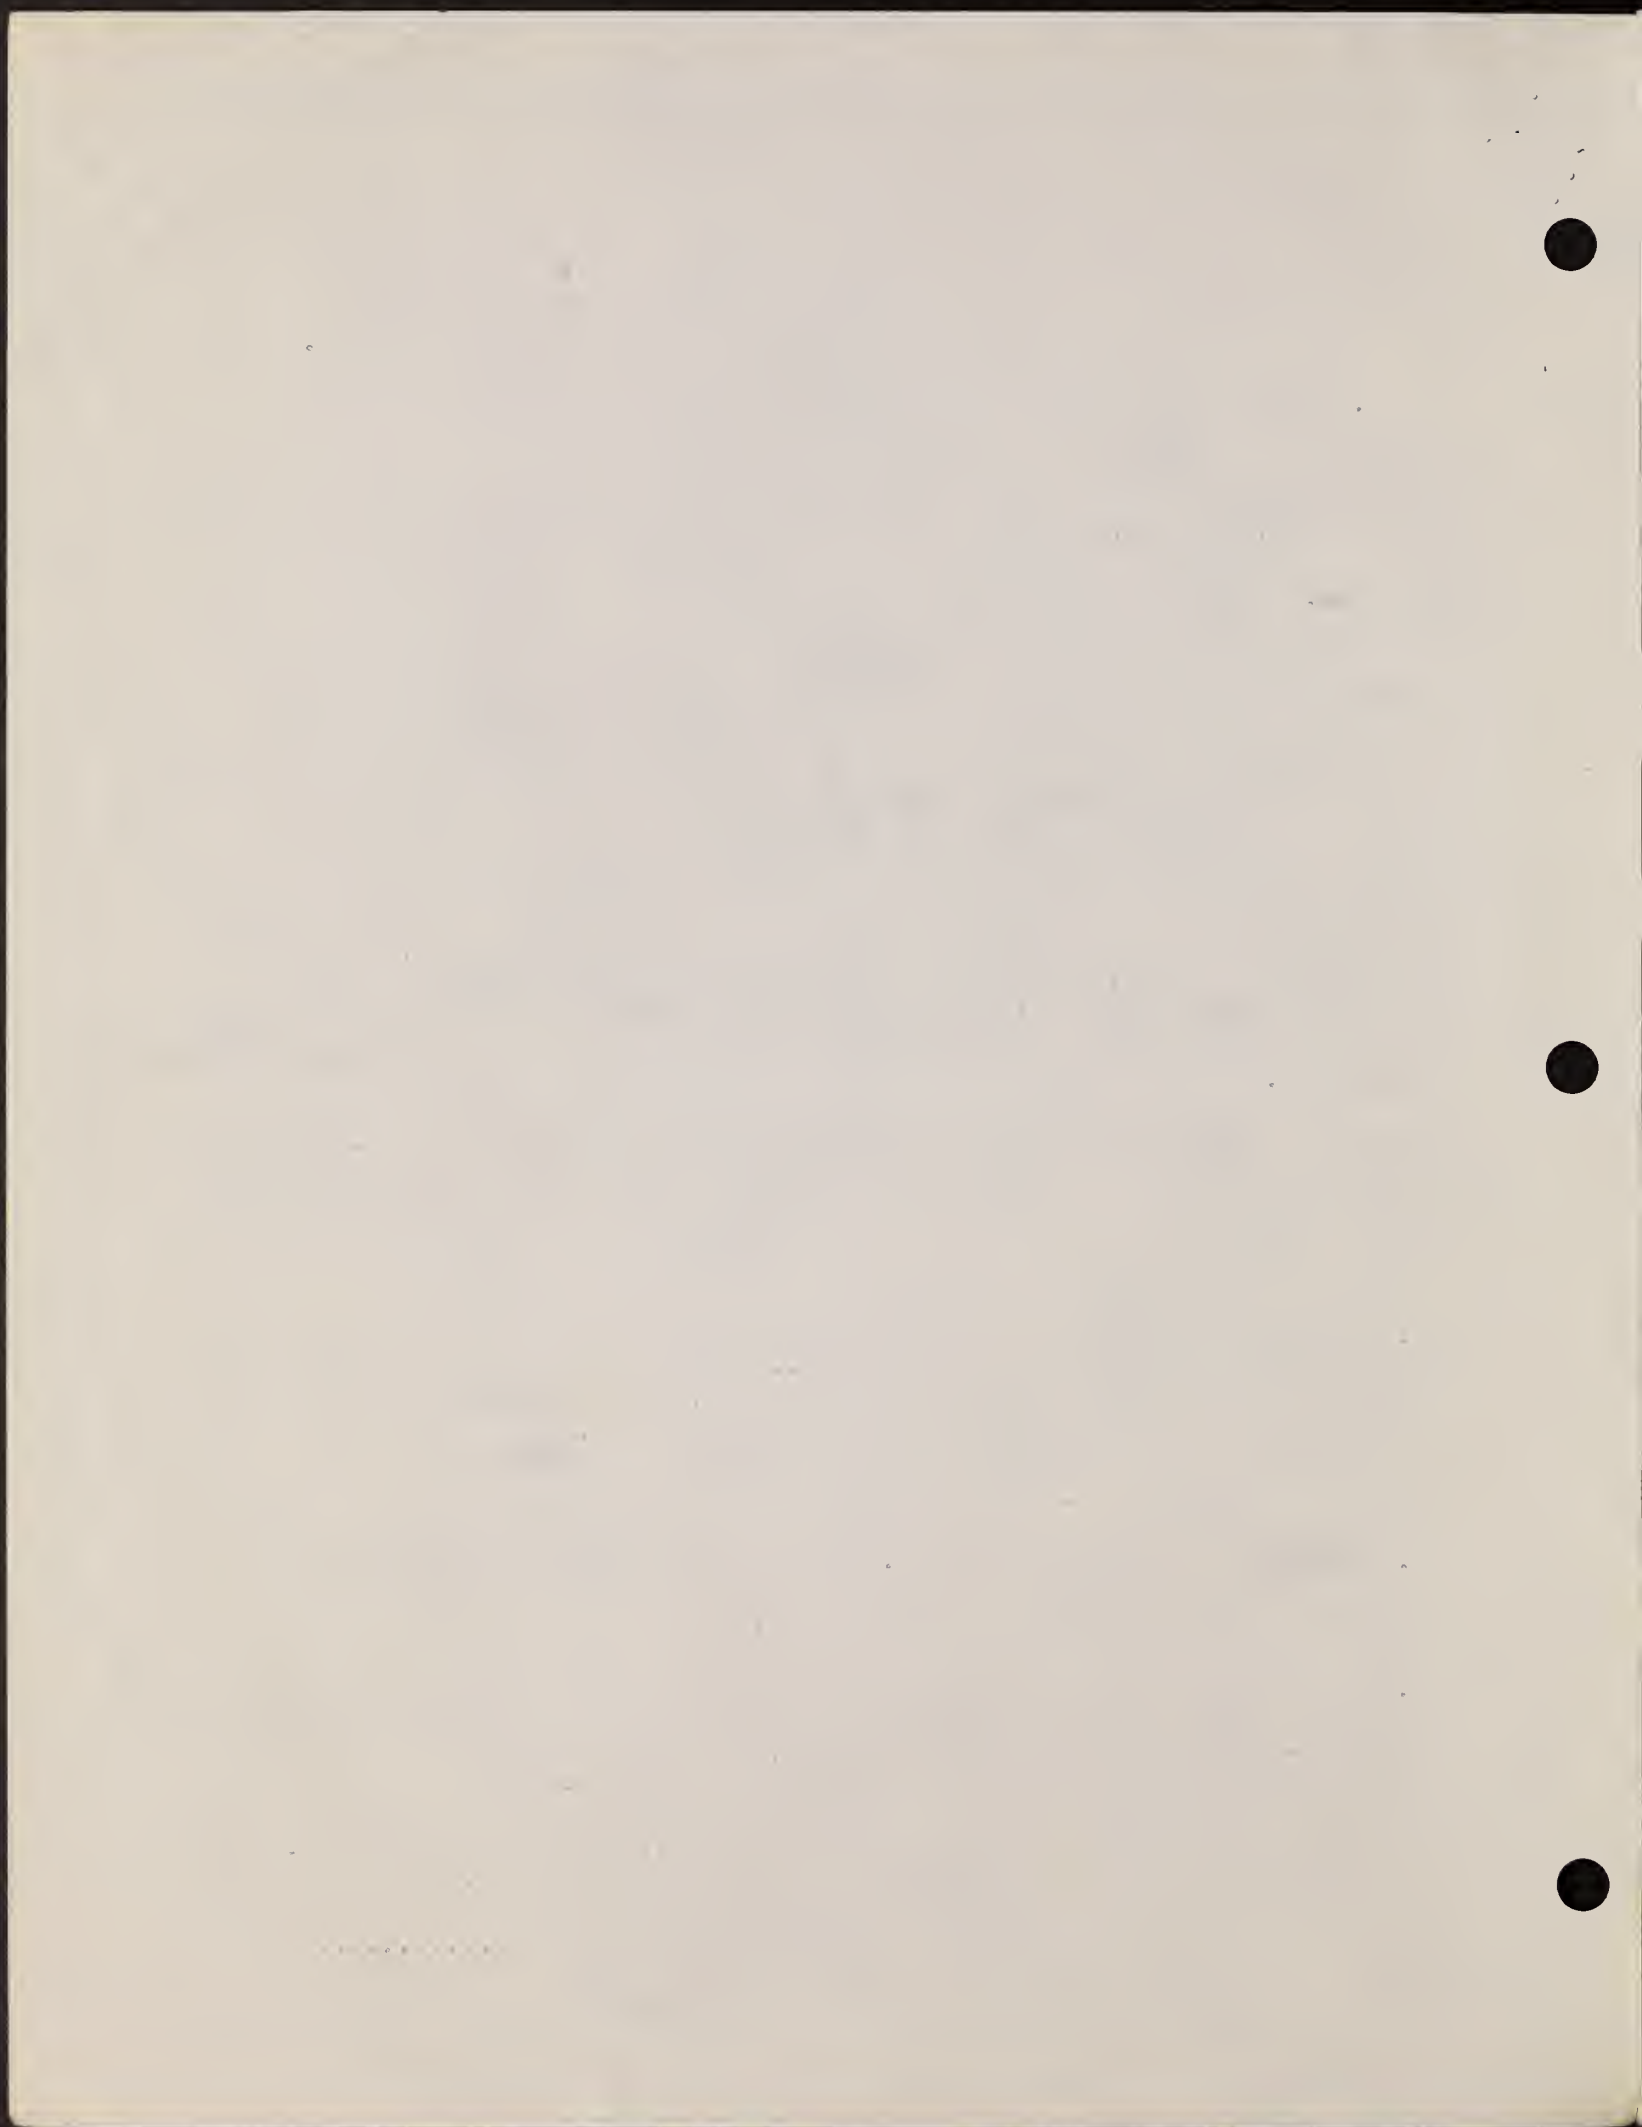

1. "A Plan of part of the new settlement of the North Bank of the South West Branch of the St. Lawrence River".....etc,. Map by Patrick McNiff, dated 1st. November, 1786. (Richard Loucks U. E. did not receive the $\frac{1}{2}$ of lot 32 and lot 33, as recorded on various early Maps.) He did receive the $\frac{1}{2}$ lot 31, second concession, Township of Osnabruck, 100 acres. More land was added to this.

2. "Vuitling List of Township No. 3. commencing 25th of Augst. and ending the 31th Augst., for 1786. (The 1786 Provision List) (Richard Loucks' name is spelled "Loukes" on this document.

3. Alphabetical List of Loyalists settled in the different Townships in the Province of Quebec (1791 Upper and Lower Canada) agreeable to Muster Rolls 1 - 21." Note says,"probably 1785."

9. Fiat 4208 - Grant to Richard Loucks, the Elder, of the Township of Osnabruk, County of Stormont, Easter District. Dated 9 November 1803.

10. WILL of "Richard Loucks, Senior, late of Osnaburgh, in the Eastern District and Province of Upper Canada, yoeman, deceased,"
Will dated the " 2nd day of June, 1806".

My great great great grandfather, Richard Loucks, U. E. settled permanently in Osnabruk Township, County of Stormont, Eastern District, in 1784, where circa 1789 beside the St. Lawrence River, he built Loucks Inn which is recorded in records as early as 1789, and which was the centre of early church and community activities, and location of the Court of General Sessions of the Peace, until 1792.

Richard Loucks, U. E. did not build Loucks House, now situated at Upper Canada Village. Richard Loucks, had been deceased nearly four decades when his gransdon, John W. Loucks, of Williamsburg Township County of Dundas, built the stone Loucks House in 1846. Richard Loucks U.E. built his Inn, in Osnabruk Township, Stormont County, John W Loucks built his house in Williamsburg Township, not very many miles apart.

Re: William Loucks, U. E. son of Richard Loucks, U. E. and his wife Dorothy (Fox) Loucks, came with his father and mother to Osnabruck Township, County of Stormont, Eastern District, and settled with them in Osnabruck Township, in 1784, LATER MOVING TO WILLIAMSBURG TOWNSHIP, COUNTY OF DUNDAS, EASTERN DISTRICT to reside.

1. Certificate dated 13 November, 1787, issued to William Loucks (Name Loucks mis-spelled "Louks" on certificate, a common occurrence on certificates of Loyalist Loucks families who settled in Osnabruck Township, County of Stormont, in 1784.) All spelled their name Loucks. This was purely a clerical error, copied into books and on Maps.

With this Certificate William Loucks, U. E. was authorized to settle on the East half of lot No. 36, second concession, Township of Osnabruck, County of Stormont Eastern District, which eventually gave him his Crown Patent for this lot dated 24 August, 1796.

2. Description - 5 August, 1796 . East half lot 36, second concession, "Osnaburgh" County of Stormont Eastern District. "With John Collins' Certificate". You will note although his certificate was written with the mis-spelling "Louks" the name on the description, was recorded as "William Loucks". William Loucks, U. E. was living in Williamsburg, Township, County of Dundas, in the year 1796.. The "Osnaburgh" was taken off the Certificate.

3. Docket Book Pg. 281. "U.E." pd. Grant August 24. Docket Sept. 8. 1796. Mr. William Loucks.

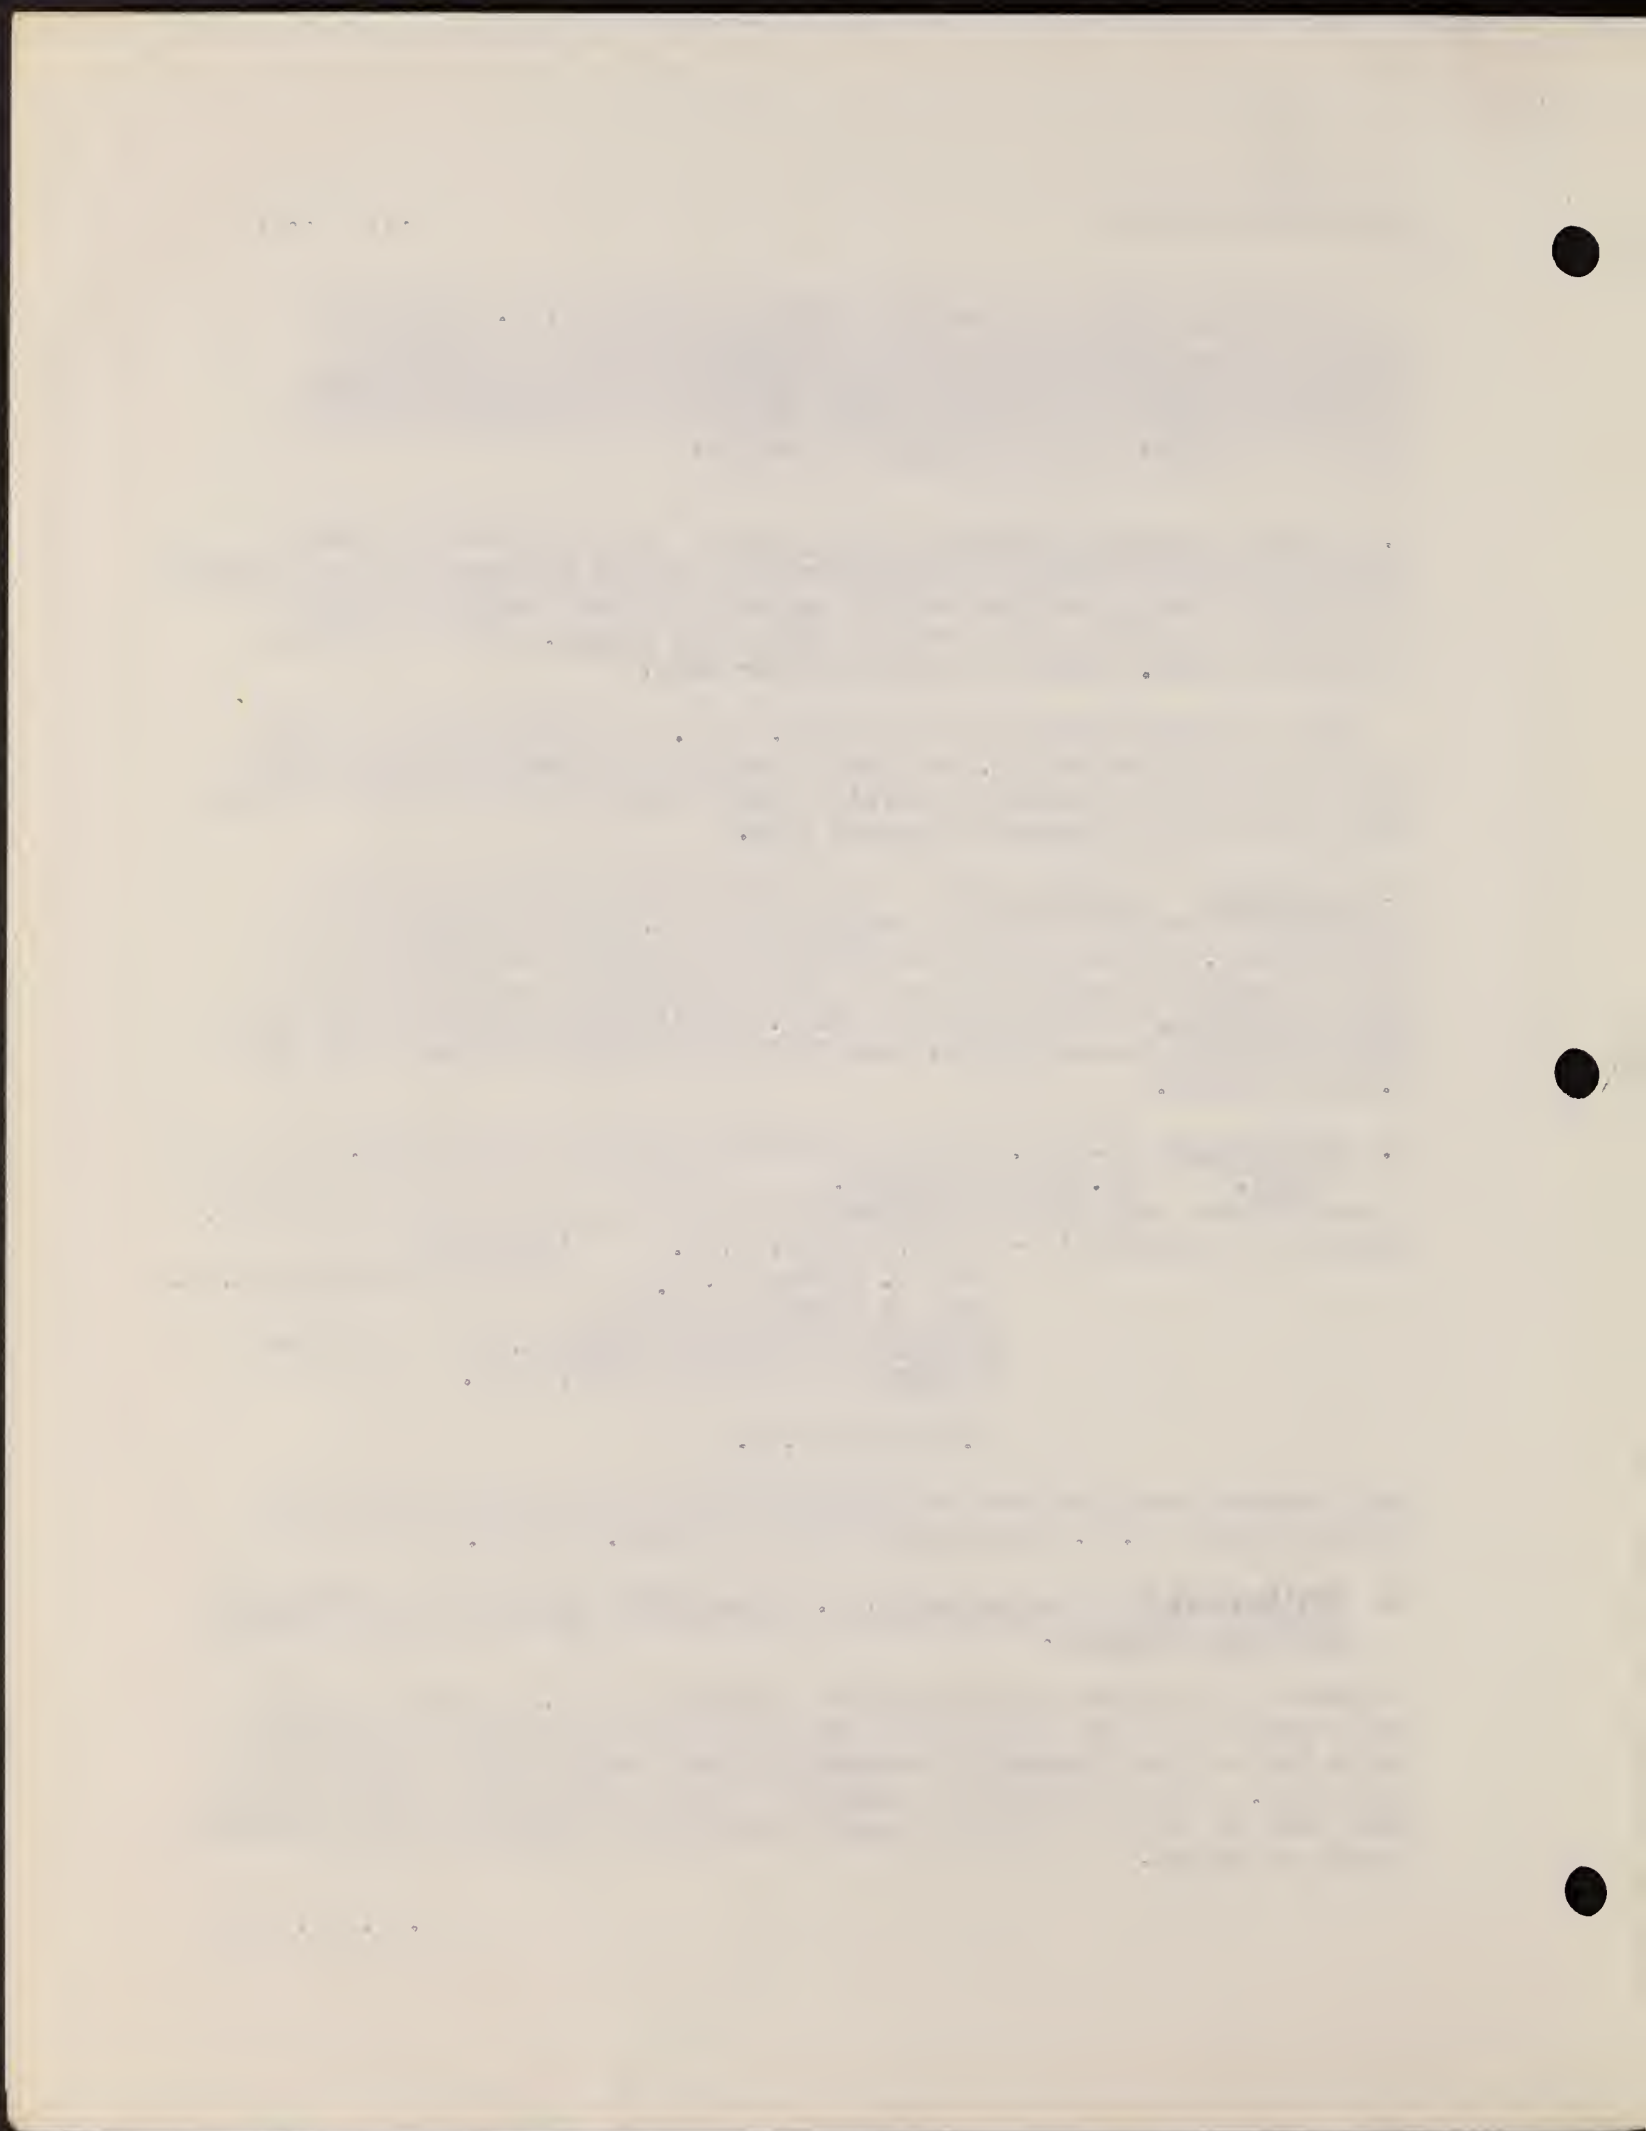

A small Docket Book with an alphabetical list has his name under "Stormont". Under "L" - Stormont is - Mr Wm. Loucks, U. E. (Elizabeth Miss E. Loucks, U. E. (Loucks) Casselman, U. E. wife of Thomas Casselman.
(Daughter of Richard Loucks, U. E. of Osnabruck ) Sister of "Mr. Wm. Loucks. U. E.

R.^d Loucks. U. E.

This document could be most confusing if a researcher did not know that William Loucks, U. E. now resided in Williamsburg, in 1796.

4. Petition of William Loucks, U. E. dated 1792, while still residing in Osnabruck Township.

In 1792 William Loucks petitioned for additional land. Persons coming to Upper Canada were now getting 200 acres, and as he had only received 100 acres in Osnabruck Township, he requested more land to be on equal footing with them. This Petition was granted 27 March, 1792, and he received the West half of lot 22, first and second concessions, Township of Williamsburg, County of Dundas.

5. Deed 1793. Transfer from Philip Empey, Sen^r of the County of Stormont, and William Loucks of the same County.

6. William Loucks, U. E. received two Crown Patents dated 24 August, 1796, and 7 March, 1803. Both were issued after he took up residence in Williamsburg Township, County of Dundas, Eastern District.

First Patent. Grant to Mr. William Loucks ...100 acres, being the East half of lot 36, second concession, Township of Osnabruck, County of Stormont, Eastern District. 24 August, 1796.

Second Crown Patent Grant to William Loucks of the Township of Williamsburg, in the County of Dundas, in the Eastern District, the West half of lot 22, first and second concessions, Township of Williamsburg, County of Dundas, Eastern District. 7 March, 1803.

Re: 1789 Map of Osnabruck Township - and - 1789 Map of Williamsburg Township.

These two maps could cause confusion if the facts were not known.

1789 Map of Osnabruck Township. - I have mentioned the fact the the name of William Loucks U.E. was mis-spelled "Louks" on his lot, the east half of lot 36 second concession, Township of Osnabruck, County of Stormont. Crown Patent - 24 August 1796.

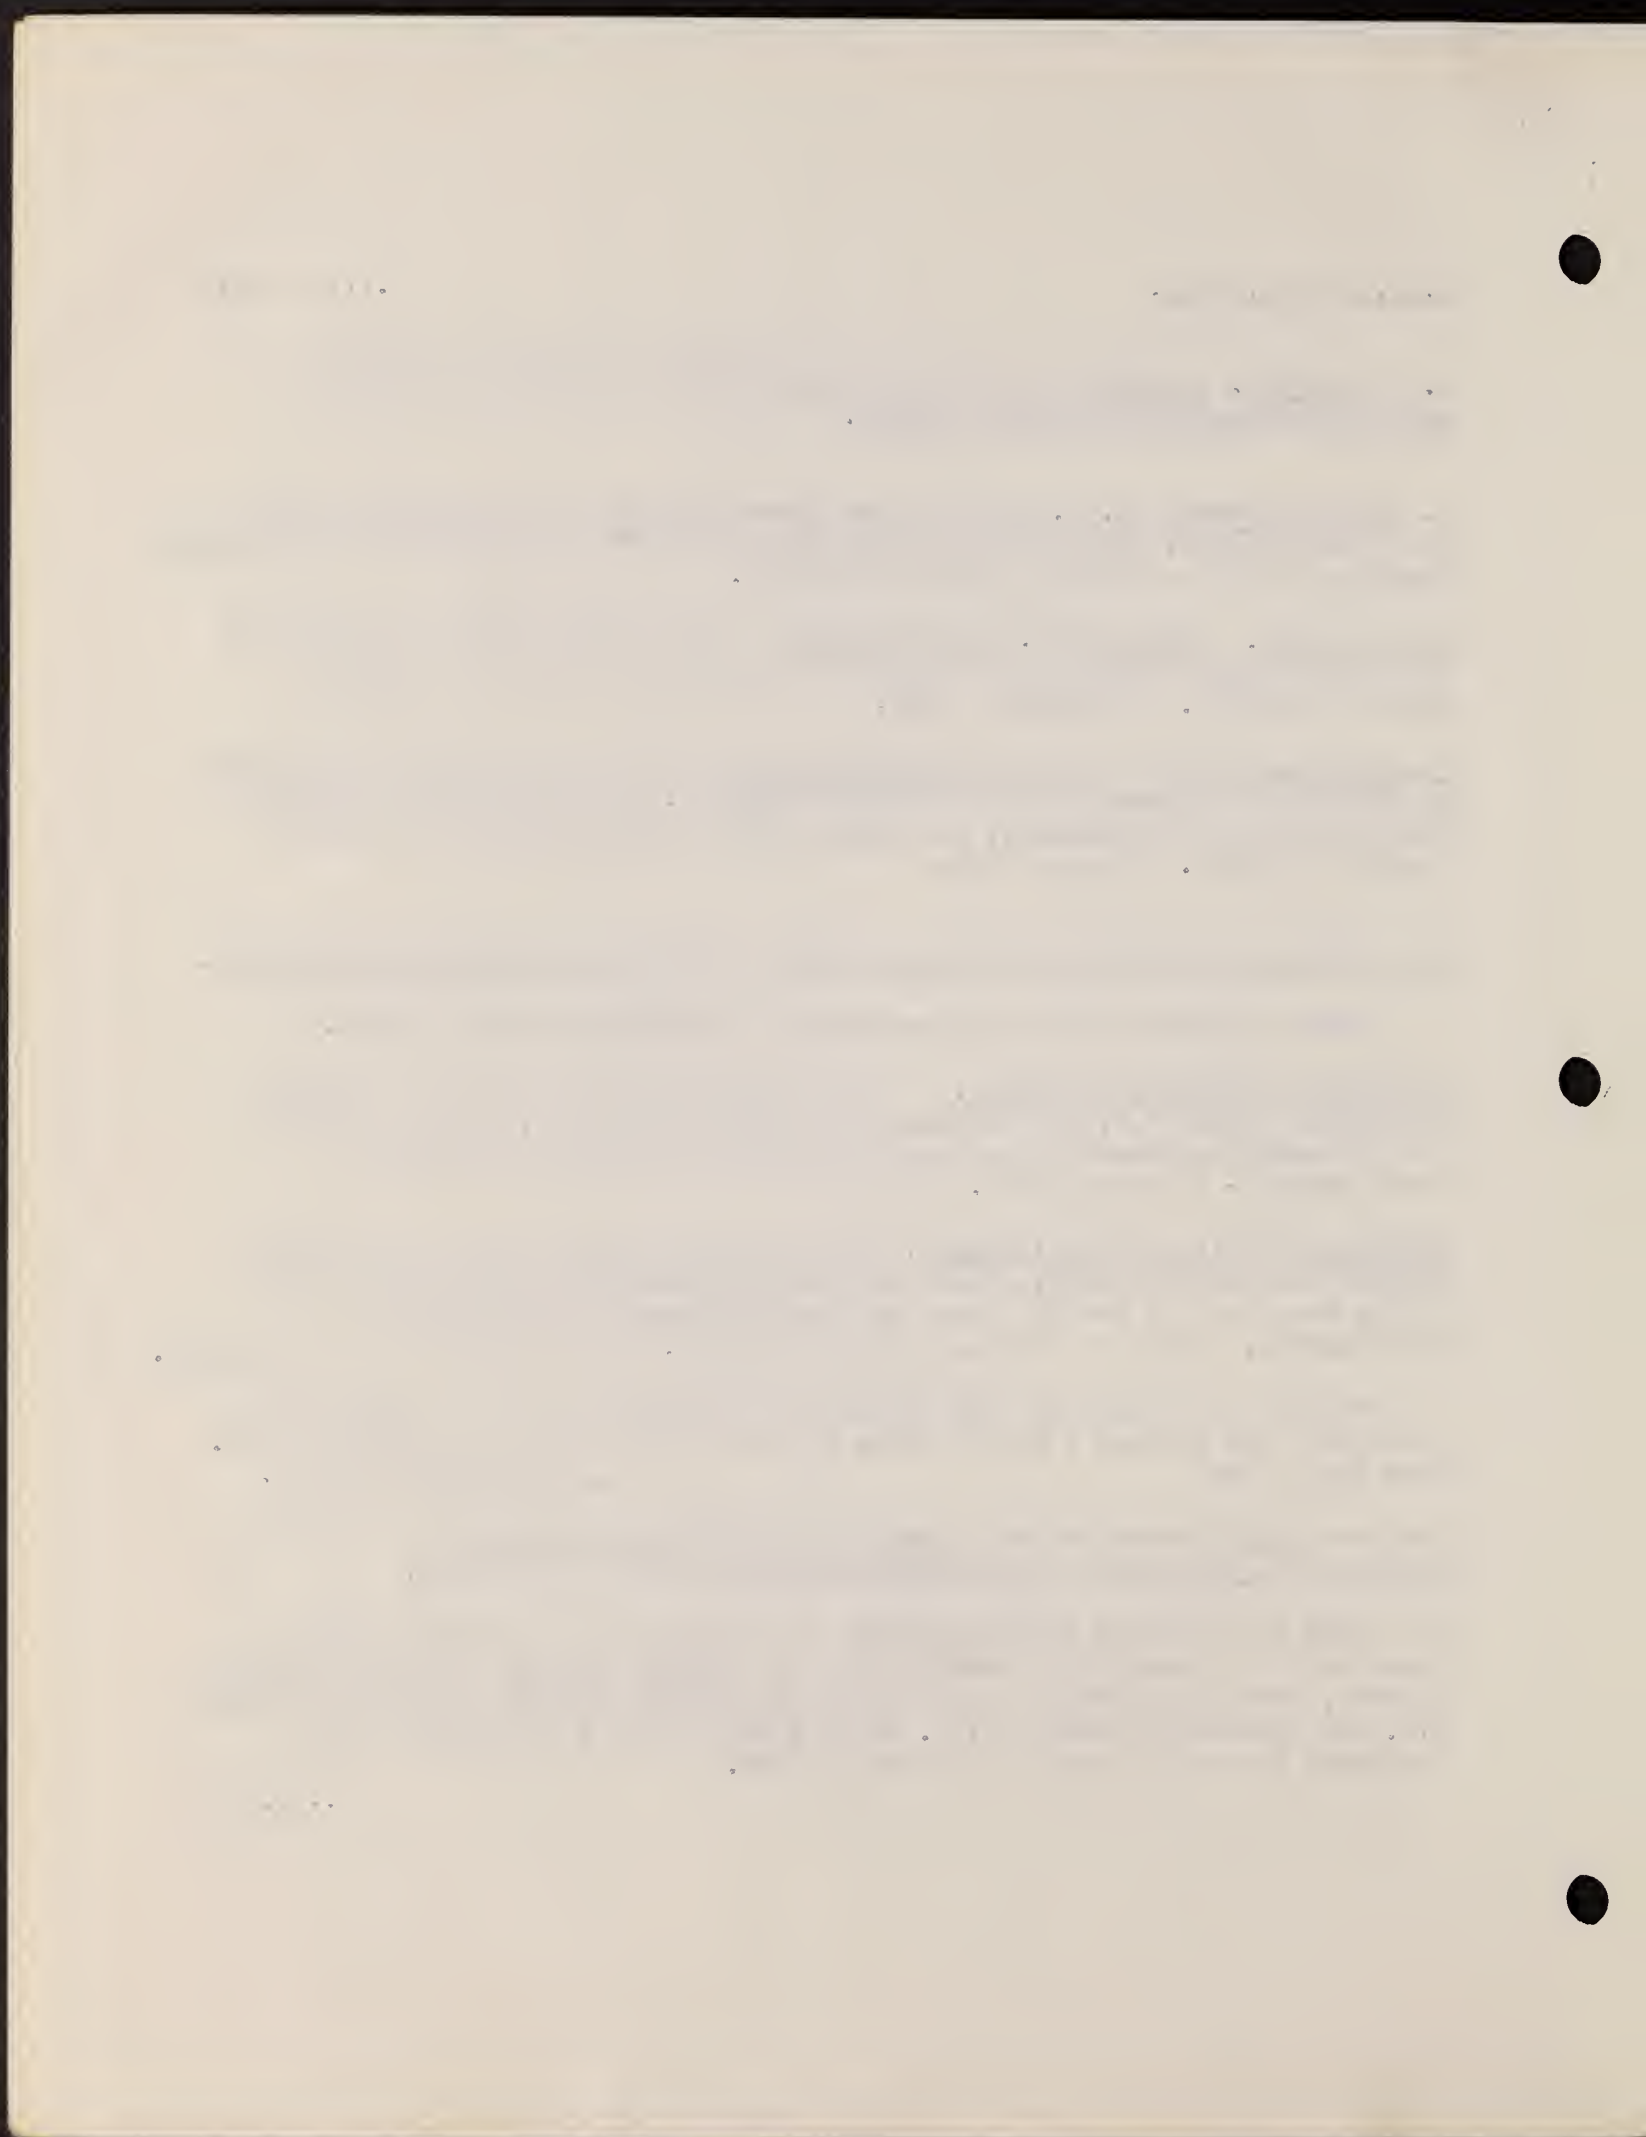

1789 Map of Williamsburg Township. On this map the name Richard Mandaville, Original Nominee was crossed out, and in its place is the name "Wm. Loucks" on the West half of lot 22, first and second concessions, Township of Williamsburg, County of Dundas, Eastern District. Lot 27 6th Con. is also marked.

You will note that the 1792 Petition of William Loucks "an inhabitant of Osnabruck" was granted 7 March, 1792, and correction made 15th October, 1792. (See top of Map) on the map, at Niagara.

The name Loucks being written "Louks" on 1789 Map of Osnabruck, and written correctly on 1789 Map of Williamsburg, Loucks, could be confusing.

The facts are that the William Loucks, who received the 24 August, 1796, Crown Patent in Osnabruck Township, and the William Loucks, who received the 7 March, 1803 Crown Patent in Williamsburg, ARE ONE AND THE SAME WILLIAM LOUCKS. U.E. son of Richard Loucks, U. E. and his wife Dorothy (Fox) Loucks, of Osnabruck Township, County of Stormont, 1784.

E. 1784, and mother, Dorothy (Fox) Loucks, and LATER MOVED TO WILLIAMSBURG TOWNSHIP, COUNTY OF DUNDAS, to reside.

1. Arthur Moseley Loucks, father of Dorothy Gwendolyn Loucks Boucher,
(wife of G. Russell Boucher, Q. C. - 598 Driveway, Ottawa, Ontario.)
2. Arthur Moseley Loucks, father of Gerald Douglas Loucks, Q. C.,
Kemptville, Ontario.

Arthur Moseley Loucks, was born in Loucks House, now at Upper Canada Village, in 1875. He also owned Loucks House. He died Kemptville, Ontario, in 1961. Married Adelyne Blanche McBrien.

From this information you will recognise some of the major mistakes made in recording the information regarding Loucks House at Upper Canada Village. You will see why so many persons were misled with distorted news media. Loucks House was built by John W. Loucks, in 1846 Williamsburg Township, Dundas County, He was a grandson of Richard Loucks, U.E. of Osnabruck Township, 1784.

Loucks Inn was built in Osnabruck Township by Richard Loucks, U. E. of Osnabruck Township. 1784. Reference Lord Selkirk's Diary - Thursday, Jany. 19, 1804.

A few of the records that could be confusing.

The U. E. List : The name "Richard Loucks" and the Provision List are correct, but Place of Residence should read - Osnabruck
This is a clerical error as documents prove.

A few confusing records.

The name "Dietrich" in old church records of Williamsburg and Osnabruck Townships.

Many German Palantines took English christian names when they went to America. My family did this. You will observe Richard Loucks, U. E. of Osnabruck Township referred to as "Dietrich" and his wife as "Dorothea". His name Loucks is spelled in a variety of ways just according to who recorded it. His name Loucks is recorded correctly in many places, before and at the same time these records were made.

William Loucks, U. E. son of Richard Loucks, U. E. of Osnabruck Township, named his eldest son William. William Loucks, Junior, was born 6th February, 1794. The church records are as follows:

Parent: "William Lauks" (or Louks according how the person interprets the record)

Child : "Wilhelm"

Sponcers : "Nicolaus Alt" & ux eg. "Catharina" who were actually Catherine (Loucks) Ault, daughter of Richard Loucks, U. E. of Osnabruck Township, and her husband Nicholas Ault, U. E. of Osnabruck Township.

6 February
1794

1 April

1791

Child - Peter

Parents - "Nicolaus Alt" and "Catherina"

Sponcers - "Dieterich Louk" & ux "Dorothea"

The parents are actually Catherine (Loucks) Ault daughter of Richard Loucks, U. E. of Osnabruck Township, and her husband Nicholas Ault, U. E. of Osnabruck Township.

The sponcers are Richard Loucks, U. E. of Osnabruck Township, and his wife Dorothy (Fox) Loucks.

DO NOT CONFUSE THE FOLLOWING CHURCH RECORDS.

As I have recorded, Richard Loucks, U. E. of Osnabruck Township, and his son Richard Loucks, JUNIOR, both came to Osnabruck Township, in 1784 and lived there permanently until their death. Both are buried in Woodlands ~~West~~ Cemetery Osnabruck Township, now flooded and part of the Seaway. Richard Loucks, JUNIOR'S Headstone, (which also includes the name of his wife, Catherine Settle) 1774-1841, is in the Memorial Cemetery, Crysler Battlefield Park, which includes Upper Canada Village, ANOTHER "RICHARD" (not my family) came to Williamsburg Township, as a small child with his father. By coincidence he married a "Catherine". This "other Richard" died in Williamsburg in 1804. This is in the church records.

In 1804, both my U. E. Loyalist ancestor, Richard Loucks, U. E. of Osnabruck Township, and his son Richard Loucks, Junior, of Osnabruck Township were well and alive.

The 20th November, 1803, Colonel John Crysler of Crysler's Farm married Nancy Loucks, of Osnabruck Township, daughter of Richard Loucks, U.E. and his wife Dorothy (Fox) Loucks. Richard Loucks, U. E. is recorded in the old church records as -"Dieterich Loucks of Osnabruck"

Descendents of William P. Loucks, of Leeds and Lanark Townships were confused for some time. Neither William P. Loucks or his son William Alfred Loucks belong to the Richard Loucks, U. E. of Osnabruck Township line. William Alfred Loucks' name is on the 1851 Census of Williamsburg Township, as is William Loucks, (son of William Loucks, U. E.) but he and his wife Margaret (Crysler) Loucks are recorded "Louks".

A misleading error appeared in a sketch of my great grandfather, John W. Loucks, in a book entitled " The Canadian Dictionary and Portrait Gallery of Eminent and Self-Made Men, Ontario Volume. 1880. pg. 662, under the heading "John W. Loucks - Morrisburg".

Quote: "John W. Loucks, clerk of the Division Court, is the son of William Loucks, a United Empire Loyalist from the State of New York, settling in the County of Stormont soon after the American Revolution, and afterwards purchasing land where he died at a great age in 1863. The year 1863 is erroneous. This date was copied and appeared in Carter's Dundas, the obituary of John W. Loucks in 1892, and unfortunately by my father, Arthur Moseley Loucks, which I copied from his notes.

My great great grandfather did not leave his fathers farm in 1803 as stated in a story written at the time of the building of Upper Canada Village. Documents prior to 1803 prove this statement to be incorrect.

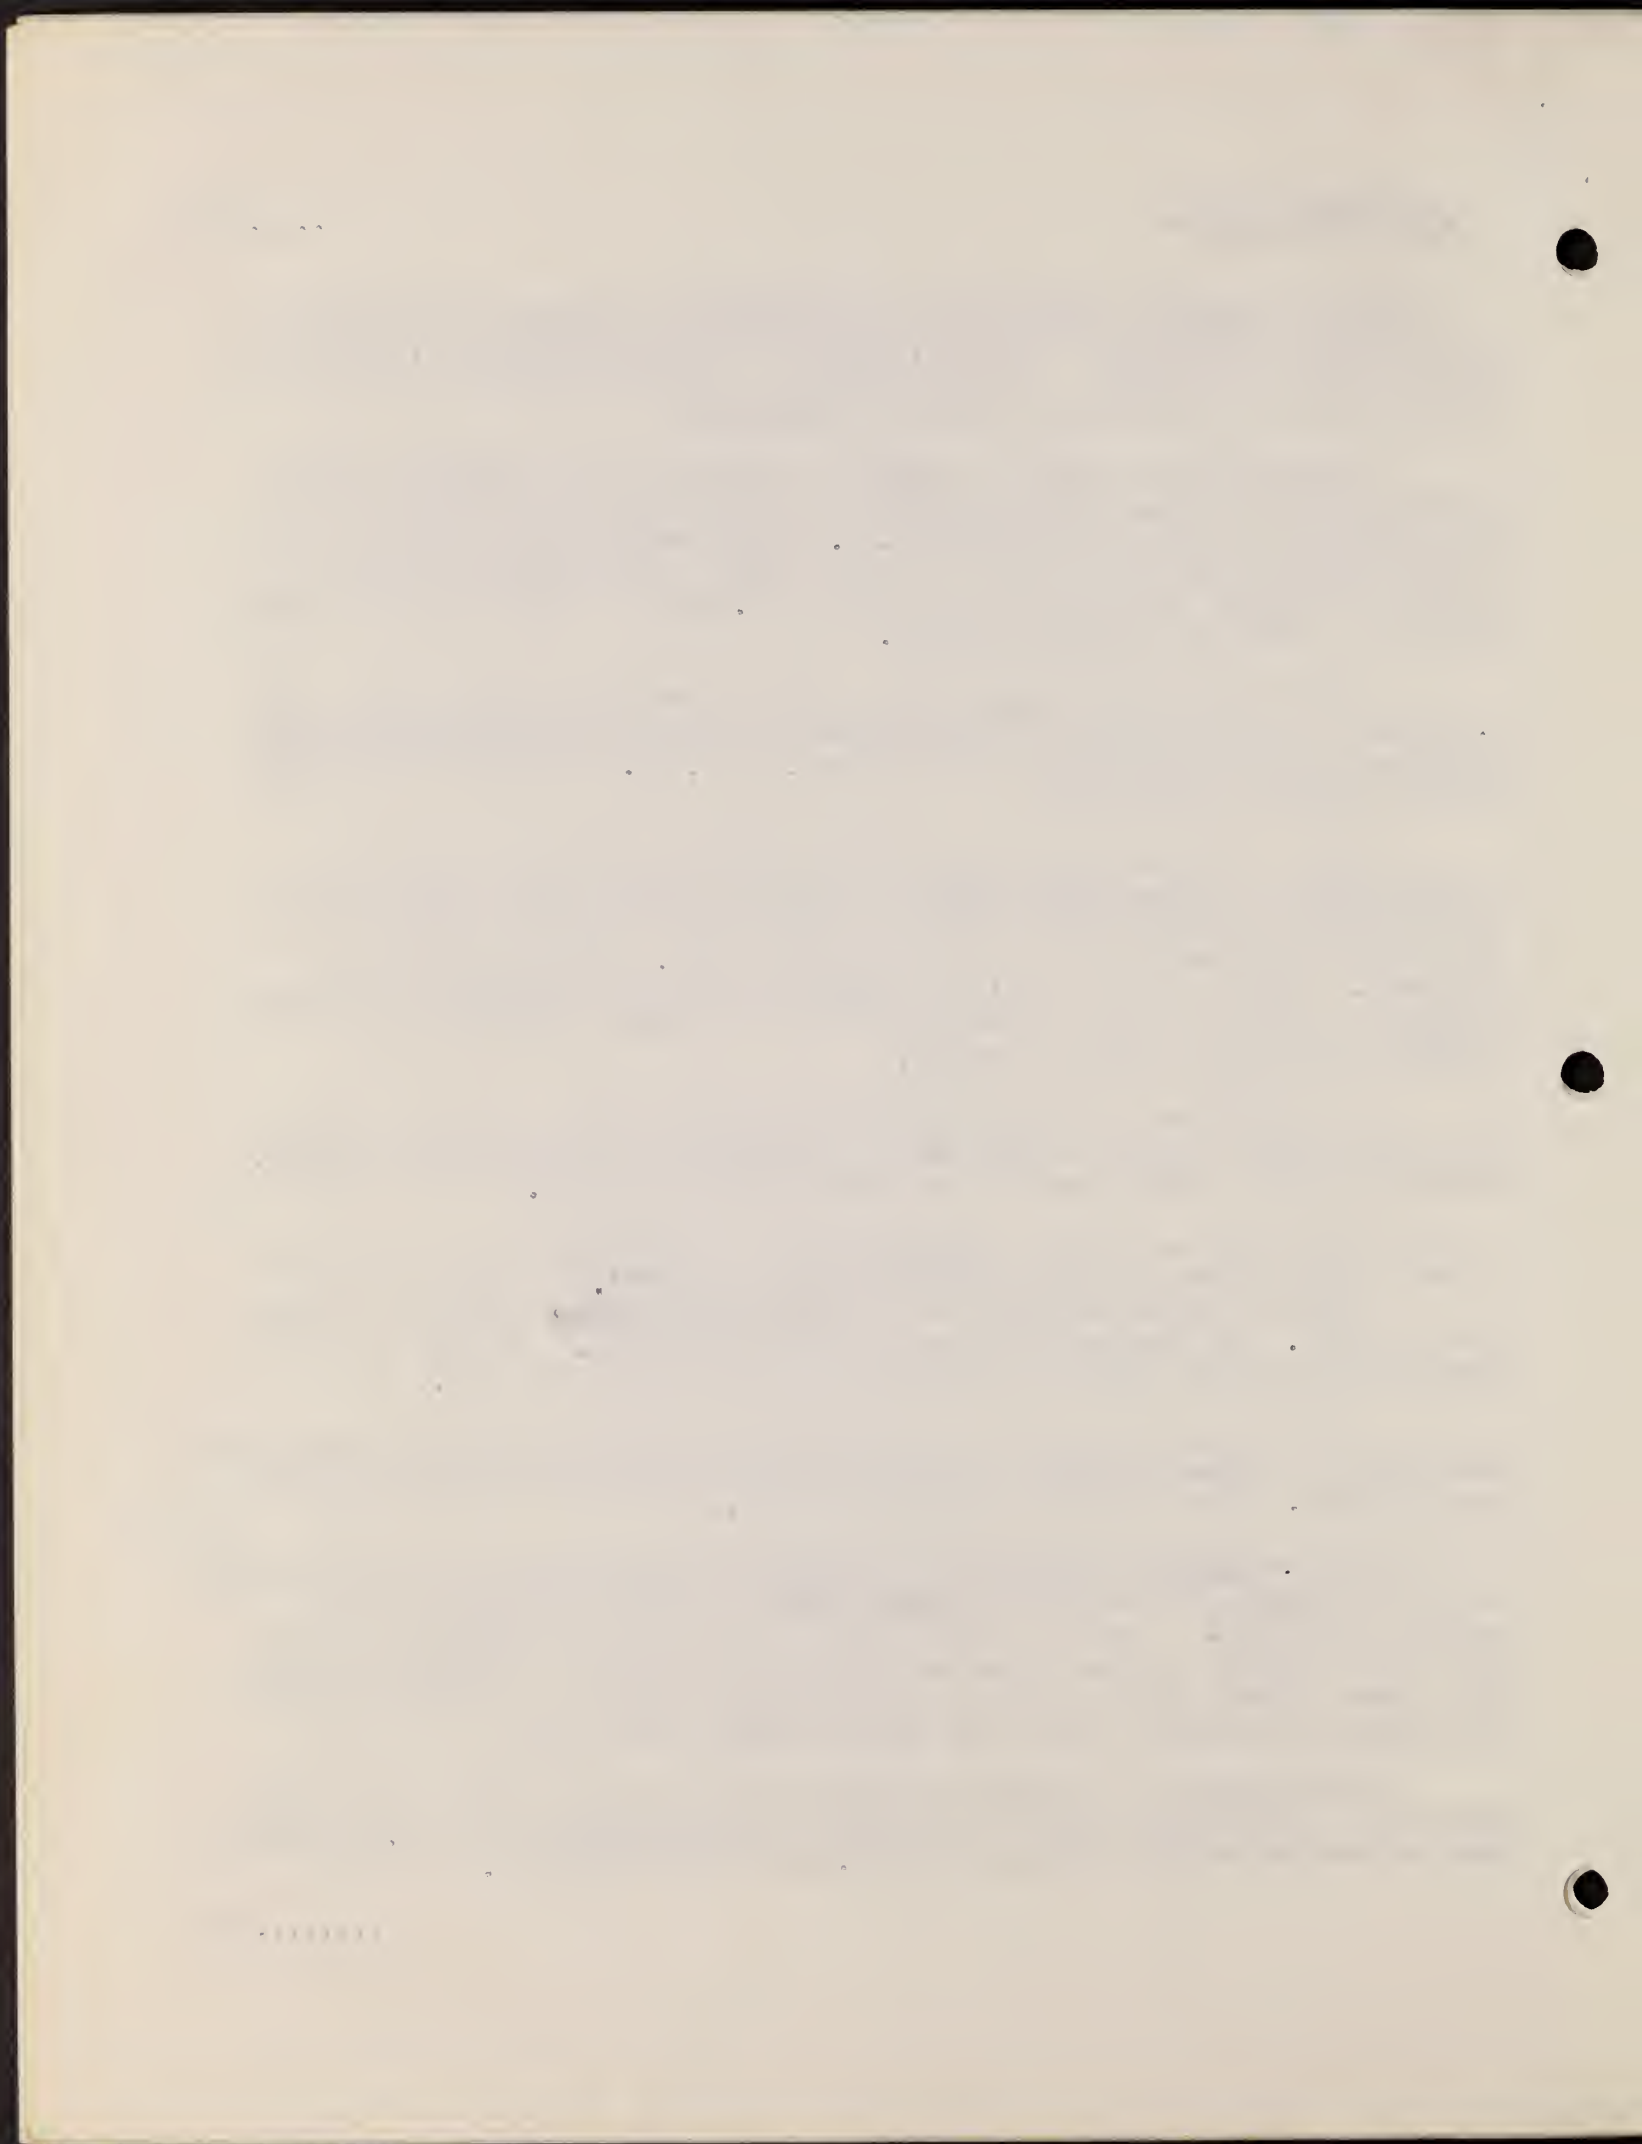

Also, John W. Loucks, did not buy the farm in Williamsburg Township, on which Loucks House was built, from his father in 1824.

John W. Loucks purchased the farm from HIS BROTHER William Loucks, (Jr.) in 1823. See Abstract in other part of this letter. William Loucks, Jr. lived in Williamsburg, Finch, and Matilda Townships during his life.

In this same story there is reference to "Louks" a Dutchman" and "Louch" dated 1817. Richard Loucks, U. E. Osnabruck Township had been deceased some years in 1817. His will was registered in 1816.

William Louks of Charlottsville Township, Norfolk County is referred to as "William Louks, Norfolk County, about 1788" and "William Louks, Norfolk County, about 1790". You will notice that the certificate of my great great grandfather William Loucks, U. E. then residing in Osnabruck Township, was dated 1787, about "1788", and the 1789 map of Osnabruck Township had the mis-spelled name Loucks, recorded as "Louks" on the 1789 Map, "about 1790".

Other members of the Louks family listed in the 1851 Census of Norfolk County are: Jacob Louks, born U. S. age 67: Philip Louks, born U. S. 38 years of age, and another William Louks, born U. S. age 42 next birthday.

K. A. Benson, Esq.,

.....12.

It is no surprise to me, that with the volume of erroneous information contained in all forms of the news media, as well as information given by persons who were not connected to Richard Loucks, U. E. of Osnabruck Township, or his son William Loucks, U. E. who settled in Osnabruck Township, in 1784, that so many people were misinformed.

The function and aim of the United Empire Loyalist Association is to preserve the history, traditions, and genealogical information of the United Empire Loyalists and their descendants. The authentic records I have sent you in this letter, are more than ample proof that the erroneous information contained in the files and records of the United Empire Loyalist Association, and the Dominion Council of the United Empire Loyalist Association, should be removed from their records

Yours sincerely,

Dorothy G. Loucks Boucher

(Mrs. G. Russell Boucher.)

Note: I shall send you shortly, my direct double line to my Great great great grandfather Richard Loucks, U.E. Osnabruck Township, 1784.

My father, Arthur Moseley Loucks, late of Aemptville, Ontario, was a double great great grandson of Richard Loucks, U. E. of Osnabruck Township, 1784.

Both of his parents, Allan Loucks, and his wife Augusta Elizabeth (Pillar) Loucks, were Great grandchildren of Richard Loucks, U. E. of Osnabruck Township, 1784, and they were second cousins.
